- Outline the Company procedures to respond to actual or potential workplace violence emergencies

- Detailed training requirements for this Plan, including the frequency of training
- Outline procedures to identify and evaluate workplace violence hazards
- Communicate post-incident response and investigation processes

Roles & Responsibilities

All the company's employees, including managers and supervisors, are expected to adhere to this Plan (except as outlined below) and are responsible for ensuring they have read this Plan and act in compliance with it.

Among the measures we take to help ensure that all employees comply with this Plan include the following:

- Informing employees of the provisions of this Plan
- Educating employees about what does (and doesn't) constitute workplace violence, as well as the workplace hazards that are relevant to their specific role
- Establishing accessible channels for employees to report workplace hazards and violence, including anonymously
- Providing training to all employees when the Plan is created, and as new hazards are identified
- Conducting post-incident investigations and taking action

In addition, roles and responsibilities for this Plan include:

Person/Team	Responsibilities
Ever Fuentes	Implementing and maintaining this Plan. Communicate to the General Manager any hazards.
Rosa Castanon	Supports plan compliance, authorizes changes, and resource allocation

Workplace Violence Defined

Workplace violence refers to any "act of violence or threat of violence that occurs in a place of employment." It includes, regardless of whether an employee sustains an injury, the threat or use of physical force against an employee that results in or is likely to result in injury, trauma, or stress, as well as incidents involving a threat or use of a firearm or other dangerous weapon.

A “threat of violence” means any verbal or written statement, including, but not limited to, texts, electronic messages, social media messages, or other online posts, or any behavior or physical conduct that conveys an intent, or that is reasonably perceived to convey an intent to cause physical harm or to place someone in fear of physical harm, and that serves no legitimate purpose.

There are four common types of workplace violence:

- ☐ Type 1 Violence: Workplace violence committed by a person who has no legitimate business at the worksite, including violent acts by anyone who enters the workplace or approaches workers with the intent to commit a crime
- ☐ Type 2 Violence: Workplace violence directed at employees by customers, clients, patients, students, inmates, or visitors
- ☐ Type 3 Violence: Workplace violence against an employee by a present or former employee, supervisor, or manager
- ☐ Type 4 Violence: Workplace violence committed in the workplace by a person who does not work there, but has or is known to have had a personal relationship with an employee

Workplace violence does not include lawful acts of self-defense or defense of others.

Reporting Workplace Violence + Protection Against Retaliation

The company strictly prohibits and does not tolerate any form of unlawful retaliation for engaging in any protected activity, including good-faith reporting of incidents of workplace violence, or filing, testifying, assisting, or participating in any manner in any related investigation, proceeding, or hearing.

Prohibited retaliation includes, but is not limited to, termination, demotion, suspension, failure to hire or consider for hire, failure to give equal consideration in making employment decisions, failure to make employment recommendations impartially, adversely affecting working conditions, or otherwise denying any employment benefit.

To report an incident, employees can use the reporting and case management tool located in their workplace or go to the website at <https://parkcrestinc.com/>

Communication Regarding Workplace Violence

Managers are responsible for communicating with all employees about workplace violence in a form readily understandable by all employees. All employees are encouraged to inform their managers about workplace hazards, and may do so without fear of reprisal.

Our communication efforts include the following:

- ☐ New employee orientation, including a discussion of workplace hazards and reporting channels
- ☐ Regular review of our broader Injury and Illness Prevention (IIP) Program, along with this Plan
- ☐ A system through which employees can inform management about workplace hazards, violent incidents, threats, and other workplace violence concerns, which includes anonymous reporting channels through our website <https://parkcrestinc.com/>
- ☐ Monthly safety scheduled training
- ☐ Open access to a mobile phone for emergency

Responding to Workplace Violence

- Emergency contact info posted in:
 - Break area
 - Manager's office
 - Maintenance Room
- 911 dialed via business line inside the office or mobile phone
- Effective means to alert employees of the presence, location, and nature of workplace violence emergencies.
- Evacuation or sheltering plans that are appropriate and feasible for the worksite.
- How to obtain help from staff assigned to respond to workplace violence emergencies, if any, security personnel, if any, and law enforcement.

Following any incident, the Company will conduct a thorough investigation, implement necessary security measures, offer necessary support services to those impacted, and take disciplinary action where required along the way. Our response procedures reflect our commitment to maintaining a workplace where safety is paramount, fostering a culture of trust and well-being for all.

Training

All employees, including managers, are required to have training and instruction on this Plan; including knowledge of how to access the most up-to-date version of this Plan; how employees can participate in the development and implementation of this Plan; key definitions; how to report workplace violence incidents or concerns; workplace violence hazards specific to an employee's role; how to seek assistance to prevent or respond to violence; and strategies to avoid physical harm. Any such training will be interactive and allow for questions and answers with the persons responsible for maintaining this Plan.

Training and instruction about this Plan is provided:

- When this Plan is first established;
- To all employees annually;
- Whenever new or previously unrecognized workplace violence hazards have been identified, or
- When changes are made to this plan.

To the extent that training is provided when a new or previously unrecognized workplace violence hazard has been identified — or when changes are made to this Plan — such training will only cover the new hazards and/or changes to this Plan.

Identification and Evaluation of Workplace Violence Hazards

The Company will proactively identify and evaluate workplace violence hazards to help ensure the ongoing safety and security of our employees. Our comprehensive approach involves:

- Regular risk assessments conducted by those listed in the Roles & Responsibilities section
- Inspections that will be conducted when the Plan is first established, after each workplace violence incident, and whenever the Company is made aware of a new or previously unrecognized hazard

Additionally, we encourage open communication with employees, providing a platform for any employee to report concerns, observations, or experiences related to workplace violence hazards. Any Incidents can be reported in person, via email, or through our hotline at <https://parkcrestinc.com/>

Correcting Workplace Violence Hazards

Workplace violence hazards shall be corrected in a timely manner based on the severity of the hazards. Hazards shall be corrected according to the following procedures:

- When observed or discovered, and
- When an imminent hazard exists that cannot be immediately abated without endangering employee(s), we will work to remove all endangered employees from the area except those necessary to address the existing hazard. Employees who are required to address the hazard shall be provided with the necessary protection.
- Condition is documented.

- Site Manager follows up within 24-72 hours
- Corrective actions may include:
 - Lighting upgrades
 - Camera re-aim/replacement
 - Adjusting schedules or closing duties.
 - Reinforce the buddy system

Post-Incident Response and Investigation

Any workplace violence incident must be thoroughly investigated. Procedures for investigations shall include:

- Interviews of employees injured and any witnesses;
- Examining the workplace for factors associated with the incident;
- Determining the cause of the incident.
- Taking corrective action to prevent the incident from reoccurring; and
- Recording/documenting the findings and taking action.

The Company will report to Cal/Psha any serious injury, illness, or death related to workplace violence to Cal/OSHA as required by Title 8, Section 242 (a)

Recordkeeping

The Company is required to maintain a violent incident log for each workplace violence incident, and must maintain such records for at least five (5) years. The log must include certain information, including the date/time/location of the incident, a detailed description of the incident, a classification of the incident, and the consequence(s) of the incident.

The log does not include any personal identifying information sufficient to allow the identification of any person involved in a violent incident.

Please contact the direct manager for copies of any of these records.

Updates

This plan will be reviewed and updated annually, when a deficiency is observed or becomes apparent, and after a workplace violence incident.
